

Disability Rights in Child Care Settings
February 15, 2023
Resource List (Child Care Law Center)

Resources on the administration of medication

- Community Care Licensing’s Provider Information Notice (“PIN”) 2022-02- CCP offers information and best practices for administering IMS here.
- California Code of Regulations, title 22, section 101226(e) outlines licensing requirements for handling medication.
- Caring for Our Children includes performance standards for Medication Administration here.
- The California Child Care Health Program offers practical information and advice about Medication Administration here.
- Support for Families, Help Me Grow Program offers assistance, facilitating conversations between child care providers and families. For more information, visit their website here.

Resources on disability rights in child care settings:

- Child Care Law Center’s Know the Law about the Americans with Disabilities Act, here.
- Child Care Law Center’s Know the Law about Giving Medications and Incidental Medical Services in Licensed Child Care in California, here.
- Child Care Law Center’s Know the Law about Responding to Challenging Behaviors in California, here.
- Parent’s Rights: An Early Start Guide for Families, here.
- The U.S. Department of Justice’s Civil Rights Division, Disability Rights Section, Commonly Asked Questions About Child Care Centers and the Americans with Disabilities Act, here.